

Cross-experiments of veterinarians France-Japon

Léa Cordebar and Barbara Ramos are both veterinary students at the end of their studies.

Originally from Brazil, Barbara studied veterinary medicine in Japan thanks to a scholarship, while Léa is in her final year at VetAgro Sup. While Léa is going to Japan for a 4 weeks internship at the Equine Medical Center of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine of Kagoshima University, Barbara is coming to France to do a 4 weeks internship at the veterinary hospital of VetAgro Sup, especially at the Clinéquine.

They tell us about their experience !
