International content

This part of PORTAILCOOP will provide you with some material in English or other languages presenting various actions or documents of interest for the actors of the European and international cooperation of the French Ministry of Agriculture and their partners.

Discover the different training, research, innovation actions and projects that the Ministry, its schools and the actors of agricultural education carry out with almost a hundred countries around common topics concerning agriculture, food, environment, citizenship and ways to respond to global challenges.

To read each article in its entirety, click on its title or on the photo.