

Global Health Challenge

From October 17 to 23, a Mozambican delegation of about ten people was received on Reunion Island (FRANCE). This trip was organized as part of the European Union funded project, H2020 ROADMAP-« Rethinking the use of antimicrobials in livestock production systems ».

This project responds to the challenge for global health posed by the proliferation of antimicrobial resistance,...

Read more